Business Spotlight: Peregrine Coffee Roasters

Founded in 2008 by Stephen R. Holmes, known locally as 'Coffee Man,' Peregrine Coffee Roasters, originally Crestone Coffee Roasters, stands out in Westcliffe for its unique approach to coffee. Focused on specialty coffee from single-family farms, the cafe, opened in 2019, has become a hub for community gathering and meaningful conversation. Their commitment to quality and community extends to donating 20% of whole bean sale profits to charity and serving customers across the US and internationally. Recognized as the best coffee in Westcliffe by the Canon City Daily Record, Peregrine is not just a coffee shop but a cornerstone of community life. Visit them online at <https://peregrineroasters.com/> and connect on Instagram and Facebook. Stephen's vision for the town includes fostering genuine connections and a more united community.

Community Member Spotlight: Paul Upton

Meet Paul Upton, a cherished resident of Westcliffe for nearly 25 years, who celebrates his 83rd birthday this March. Known for his invaluable contributions, such as stringing Christmas lights and aiding in the Ace store's relocation, Paul's passion for the community shines through. An avid car enthusiast, he eagerly anticipates the annual auto show, and his love for tennis reflects in his affinity for the local tennis courts. As an active member of the Sangre Shooting Sports Club, Paul spends his leisure time in practical pursuits like processing firewood and snow removal. Notably, he pioneered the calculus program at the local high school, demonstrating his commitment to education. Paul's advice, "Help your neighbors when you can," and his vision for improving the town's tennis courts, encapsulate his dedication to Westcliffe, making him a true embodiment of community spirit and altruism.

Community Leader Spotlight: Art Nordyke

Meet Art Nordyke, a cherished member of our Board of Trustees and a true pillar of the Westcliffe community. Art's journey to Westcliffe started with his job, but it was his love for our town and its people that drove him to serve on the Town Board. He's passionate about guiding our town towards responsible growth and is always up for the challenge of making the right decisions for everyone's benefit.

Outside the boardroom, Art's a man of the great outdoors – give him a fishing rod or a 4-wheeler, and he's in his element! He's been a part of our Westcliffe fabric for over 46 years, leaving a legacy as our coroner for an impressive 36 years. Art's favorite local event? The Rotary Pancake Breakfast, where he's likely to share stories and smiles over pancakes. If you want to chat with Art or share your thoughts, he's all ears and prefers a good, old-fashioned face-to-face conversation. His approachable nature and dedication make him not just a board member, but a friend to all in Westcliffe.

LOCAL UNITY under the same stars.
